- JIM SAUNDERS & STEVE HEARST

2019 RANDOLPH RED CUVÉE

Tasting Notes:

The great majority of Hearst Ranch Wines are blended with deference to varietal heritage. Keeping Bordeaux with Bordeaux and Rhone with Rhone forms symbiotic bonds that are steeped in tradition. Randolph is an outlier in that the only directive, is to make a delicious wine without pretense. The 2019 Randolph is comprised of 6 different varietals, gleaning personality from each. There is plenty of vibrant, red fruit on both the nose and palate, with the latter riding upon a lush, velvety texture. A modest compliment of new oak adds some spicy depth while allowing the overall presentation to remain approachable and easy drinking. You will find this wine versatile in both food-pairing and as an aperitif. Enjoy now through 2026.
